I am dedicating Archives International Auctions, Part XXVI to my wonderful, loving wife, Debra and my amazing son, Daniel. I also want to acknowledge my mother, Tillie Schwartz and my in-laws Flora and David Perskie in this long term project. This ongoing catalog series would not be possible without their love and support.

I would also like to thank my good friends Norman Scrivener, Larry Schuffman, Bob Kerstein, Scott Winslow, Russell Kaye, Steve Goldsmith, Mahdi Bseiso, George Cuhaj, David Coogle and Larry Gibson for their help, advice and moral support during the writing and production of this catalog. I would also like to thank David Alexander and the Laubenheimer family for their help in completing this catalog. In addition, I want to thank David Conway and Valerie Williams for their amazing technical help and sense of humor throughout the cataloging time period and I would also like to acknowledge my hard working team at AIA for another great job and I especially want to thank Leroy Mitchell, for his continuous friendship and extreme patience during the process of the completion of the twenty-sixth volume of the Archives International Auction Series.

Foreword

Welcome to the Sale

On behalf of the entire Archives International Auctions team, I would like to personally welcome you to our twenty-sixth exciting auction we have held over the last eight years. We are privileged to offer the Family Archives of Rudolph P. Laubenheimer, Master Engraver, Die Sinker and Medailleur in more than 470 lots of historic medals, medal and token production material, works on paper, advertising ephemera and production artwork that have been closely held by the family for over 100 years.

This year, 2015, marks the 110th anniversary of Rudolph's death in 1905. It is appropriate that we celebrate this anniversary by acknowledging this amazing man as well as learning from him. After months of working on this project and very closely with the family, I would call Rudolph a Renaissance man as well as an inspiration to anyone in a creative field as is shown with his incredible range of talent, from engraving, to sculpting, to drawing and painting, graphic design, music and composition, shall I continue? On top of this, he had tremendous tragedy occur early in his life, out of 5 children, losing 3 boys in infancy and one at the age of 12 as well as his wife, Henrietta, who he adored at a young age in the late 1870's. His remaining son, Ernst, who was devoted to his father, followed in his footsteps and continued in the field as a talented and successful lithographer for American Bank Note Company for many years. Through all of this, Rudolph persevered and never let these personal tragedies stop him from accomplishing an amazing amount of exceptional work over a 50 year+ time period.

This sale includes production items relating to his work with medals, tokens, jewelry and artistic objects; Coin and stamp production proofs and essays; Works on paper including original artwork and sketches, some relating to medal and jewelry designs, others to strictly artistic esthetic pursuits; Commercial graphic artwork for advertising; engravings and vignettes, as well as engraving and Die Sinking seals, plus additional source material for his work. The sale concludes with about 70 lots of commercial artwork and production material created by Ernst over a 40 year+ time period.

We are also offering a large selection of U.S. & Worldwide Banknotes, Coins, Medals, Scripophily, a substantial find of Early Security Printing Ephemera, mainly related to Continental Bank Note Company that has come from the engravers family ca. 1860-70's, and hundreds of rare and exciting items that rarely come up for auction.

We are looking forward to another exciting auction and hope you enjoy our current offerings. We are in the planning stages of our next Scripophily, Coin & Banknote auction scheduled for Mid-October 2015 at the Wall Street Coin, Currency, Scripophily & Collectibles Show and preparing for our sixth Hong Kong auction scheduled tentatively for late November to December 2015 featuring the Second part of the Alexander I. Pogrebetsky Family Archives. If you have suitable material, we are still seeking consignments for our upcoming 2015-2016 auctions. I would like to thank everyone who has participated in our previous auctions and has helped make this auction series a resounding success.

Best of luck,

Bob Schwartz

KEY TO CATALOGING

DEFINITIONS

SPECIMEN: An archival printing sample of a finished item, such as a stock certificate, banknote or stamp that is printed usually with "000000" serial numbers and may have "Specimen" overprinted on it and be punch canceled to invalidate it and prevent its use surreptitiously. Specimens were kept for a number of reasons, though usually as samples to give out to prospective customers to give them an idea of the type and quality of the work that the printing company was capable of doing. Usually specimens were printed in limited amounts at the beginning of a printing run to evaluate the quality of the printing work and color combinations at an early stage, rather than have an entire production run rejected due to some minor flaw that was not found until after the printing was completed. A specimen is similar to the final product, printed on the same paper and in the same color.

COLOR TRIAL SPECIMENS: Sometimes specimens would be printed in numerous color combinations not used on the final note for evaluation before a final printing. These are usually extremely rare.

PROOF: An initial pull or impression from a plate or die for evaluation of text, vignette, engraving, and esthetic appeal and to check for any errors or faults. These were usually printed on india paper mounted on card or printed on some form of paper or light card. The amount of proofs printed is usually extremely small and usually number only a handful. Proofs allowed the printing company to evaluate the quality of the item being printed without having to go to the expense of making final plates and finding out small errors that could have been repaired at an earlier stage. Usually, proofs are single impressions of banknotes, stamps, vignettes, etc. Anything that was made into a plate, such as a sheet of 100 stamps could have had proof impressions taken from it. These would be called plate proofs (for multiple images) versus die proofs (usually of a single or small amount of images).

COLOR TRIAL PROOF: A proof printed in a color other than the issued color.

ESSAY SPECIMEN or PROOF: A proposed design that was not used but may be similar or even totally different to a final approved design. An artist, engraver or company may have proposed a number of different designs and color combinations to a client for his approval. If a design is rejected and never used, it could be called an essay.

PRODUCTION MATERIAL: Material found in files used in the production of security printed documents, banknotes, stamps and such. It may include correspondence, photographs, artwork, and signature samples, samples of other printed items that are marked up with corrections as well as proofs, specimens, essays, models, mockups and issued final items.

MODEL: A proposed or final design that may include original artwork, pieces of design elements such as borders, titles, vignettes, corporate seals, undertints and possibly portions of photographs. Before an engraved item was made, a design had to be decided on. This portion of the design process allowed for the artistic skills of the engraver or design department to be exhibited. Before the" digital age", banknote engravers and designers would cut up portions of other engraved items and re-apply them in a different form or design to come up with a unique new stamp, banknote or certificate. Often, all new engravings or "vignettes" of people or scenes would be engraved first to include in the new "work of art", and other times, portions of different completed items would be "borrowed" to use on a newly designed item. All models are rare and almost all of them are unique.

Rudolph P. Laubenheimer

Rudolph P. Laubenheimer, Engraver, Die Sinker and Medailleur, was one of the leading representatives in the United States in his field from 1858 until his death in 1905. His services were in demand in the United States as well as Canada, Central and South America. He designed and made dies for postage stamps and postal stationary including the noteworthy 1870 U.S. Postal Stationary series in which he received a commendation from the U.S. Post Office Department for exceptional work.

Rudolph's prolific career spanning 5 decades included designing and fabricating dies for the state seals of New York, Virginia, Maryland, Washington and North Carolina; medal and die designs for the 1876 Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia; Medal designs for the Paris Exposition of 1867 which probably contributed to his obtaining the opportunity to design the U.S.P.O. Department Postal stationary series of 1870; a number of medals and other objects related to the 1892-93 Columbian Exposition as well as numerous medals and decorative designs for many other events, topics, expositions and causes.

He was noted for his George Washington Portraits as well as producing many Civil War tokens. Unfortunately, due to the destruction of his order books, irreparably water damaged as a result of a fire adjoining his shop, the actual list of jobs accepted and completed during that period was lost. He designed, engraved, created dies and fabricated coins for Colombia; coats of arms; works on paper including his production designs for medals as well as die production for medals, jewelry dies, decorative object, embossing plates, various badges, belt buckles including ones for the military, seal presses, bookbinders stamps, numerous cameo corner cards and business cards, Lithography work, portraits including many of his friends, still life drawings and paintings and various designs and images used in his craft as well as hundreds of other related items that have never previously been offered to the collecting public. On his card he has printed "Only the finest and most artistic work is executed and all orders are filled without delay"

Rudolph Phillipp Laubenheimer was born in Germany in the small ancient walled town of Meisenheim am Glan in Hesse-Homburg on July 11, 1833 as the second youngest of seven boys to Christian and Frederica Laubenheimer. His family had been established in this town since before the 1750's. As a child he exhibited a talent for drawing and painting. Due to the inheritance laws of that time, the oldest son would be the sole heir of his family's estate so in order to place him in a position that could lead to a trade or career and better to develop his talents, his family sent him to Holland at the age of 14 and apprenticed him as an engraver. His apprenticeship lasted 4 years. He decided that the United States offered better prospects in his field and he traveled to Havre, France to voyage to the U.S. aboard the sailing vessel "William Tell". He set sail on May 18th, 1851. The ship was one year old and made the trip in the relatively fast time of 26 days. He drew numerous portraits of the crew members and the ship on his way over which are included in this offering. He landed at the Battery in New York with 3 ½ dollars worth of foreign silver in his pocket. This information came from a notebook he carried with him detailing elements of his voyage and experiences.

He arrived in New York about one month shy of his 18th birthday and was met by his two older brothers who had emigrated to the U.S. a few years earlier. The three shared an apartment for about 2 years as Rudolph was getting established and improving his English. His two brothers supported him and did not allow him to spend any of his own money until he began his first position with the engraving firm of John Hoole Sr. He worked there for a number of years before he went on to establish his own business. His two older brothers went on to establish a fruit import-export business based in Georgia and Costa Rica/Nicaragua/Colombia. These family ontacts probably led to his first commissions from that part of the world. He established his own office as Die Sinker and Medailleur in 1858 at 6 John Street. Over a period of years he moved to 54 Barclay Street and his office for the last 25 years of his ilfe was at 243 Broadway, opposite City Hall Park.

Rudolph was an accomplished musician, composer and vocalist who joined the German singing society "Liederkranz, then in its infancy in the early 1850's. As a young member sang in the Maennerchor, in which he made many lifelong friendships including one with William Steinway of Steinway Piano fame, who also came to the United States around the same time period. Rudolph spent his leisure hours drawing and painting and was proficient on the piano, spending many hours improvising and composing as he played. His special love was for the cello. He composed many pieces for the piano as well as for trios including the cello.

In 1863, Rudolph married Miss Henrietta Zimmer of No.27 Fifth Avenue, the daughter of a Lutheran Minister. They proceeded to have 5 boys, 3 of whom died in their infancy and one at 12 years of age. His only surviving son, Ernst Laubenheimer, who writings provided most of the details of his father's life for this biography, was an accomplished lithographer, commercial artist and designer who spent many years with the American Bank Note Lithography Department.

Rudolph died due to an accident on February 25th, 1905 and his final resting place was in the family plot in the Old Lutheran Cemetery in which he had designed the monument for his wife Henrietta and his four children who predeceased him by nearly 30 years. Rudolph adored Henrietta and never remarried, preferring to stay a widower.

Ernst Laubenheimer was very family oriented and loved and admired his father, worshipped his wife, Myrtle, and believed his daughter, Milicent, the ultimate gift of his life. He was born in NYC and educated there. Much of his early training in the arts he received from his father. By the early 1890's he was at American Bank. He was a lithographer and was considered an exceptionally fine vignette lithographer. By 1929 he was with a different firm, possibly the "New York label & Box Works". It closed its doors, like so many others, by 1930. At that point Ernest was nearing 60 years of age and simply retired. He was also a lifelong stamp and coin collector. He was an avid hiker and continued hiking well into later life. He divided his retirement years between Maine and NJ and passed away in 1956.

Ernst with colleagues from the ABNC Lithography Department circa 1900-1910

We are privileged to offer this amazing family archive with its treasure trove of artwork, historic artifacts, medals and medal design and production work as well as a significant offering of Rudolph's son Ernst's creative commercial advertising work. This is a unique opportunity to obtain material from this master craftsman in many fields, from art to music that has never seen the light of day for over 110 years.

The Rudolph Laubenheimer Collection

Landmark in Numismatics, Philatelics and Engraver's Arts

By David Thomason Alexander

The appearance on the market of the family archive of German-born master engraver and die sinker Rudolph Philipp Laubenheimer (1833-1905) is an event with few precedents in American collecting history. Preserved with remarkable care and fidelity for more than a century after the artist's death by generations of his descendants, this archive reveals Laubenheimer in all aspects of his art, both in print and metallic forms.

Collectors in the worlds of coins, medals and stamps tend to confine their involvement narrowly to areas of specific interest to them, ignoring the wider horizons of a given artist's talents and abilities. This is generally easy to do for few, if any, comparably panoramic collections have survived that fully document the multiple talents of such a capable artist.

When the young engraver arrived in New York City in 1851, he joined many German engravers who settled in lower Manhattan and generally worked harmoniously together, sometimes sharing dies and commissions, especially during the heyday of the Civil War tokens that flooded the Union early in the great Civil War.

One such colleague was Emil Sigel, prolific token maker who after the war designed and struck the massive medal honoring the assassinated Abraham Lincoln that was the first medal issued by the fledgling American Numismatic Society which is still flourishing today; others were George J. Glaubrecht, Louis Lichtweis and Louis Roloff. None of these men left any archive comparable to Laubenheimer's.

Laubenheimer's wider scope of activities brought him notice in volume I of Leonard Forrer's Biographical Dictionary of Medallists, published in 1907 by Spink & Son in London: LAUBENHEIMER, R. (Amer.). Contemporary Medallist, residing at New York. He is the author of various Masonic and other medals, among which I have noted: Masonic Red Cross Degree, with bust of Washington, 1875; Howard Benevolent Association (yellow-fever), Savannah, 1876.

Reading the catalog which follows will demonstrate that Laubenheimer was also well known in Latin and South America through his pattern coins, commercial tokens and medals; his work with postal paper and security printing will be seen to be equally outstanding. Intaglio print was a medium in which he displayed mastery and his work with color advertising materials shows just how art and commerce could be brought together by a skilled engraver.

The artist's familiarity with ancient art and mythology, his study of historic fashions and design and his ever-meticulous die work to create the highest quality embossed printing show why he rose swiftly to the front rank of American engravers and how he remained in this first rank for more than forty years after the Civil War.

Study of his cameo business cards reveals his skill at architectural rendering and it can be said that these intricately detailed views preserve the flavor of a busy area of commerce, transportation and industry of New York City during a critical era.

The care lavished on these often perishable and ephemeral objects assured their survival. The sheer size of the collection made preservation difficult but the family rose to the challenge and assured their forebear a prominent place in the areas of art in which he was active. One can only wish others had been as active.

Given the broad scope of its content and careful preparation, this comprehensive catalog of the Rudolph Philipp Laubenheimer collection will act as a textbook for the study of the medallic, philatelic and commercial art of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. It will also serve as a monument to a great artist and to the devotion of his dedicated family and descendants to his memory.

Part XXVI
The Rudolph P. Laubenheimer,
Master Engraver, Die Sinker and Medailleur,
Family Archives
June 25, 2015

The following 35 lots of Cameo and related business cards are one of the most significant offerings of this type of rare collectible to be placed on the market in the last 20 years or more. The one thing that allows this collection to stand out is that it is the work of one man, Rudolph P. Laubenheimer and has never been offered to the collecting public previously. Almost all are on coated stock and would have been used either as a calling card, or just as easily the design could have been used for envelope advertising corner cards.

SECURITY PRINTING EPHEMERA
Argentina
Outstanding American Banknote Company Historic Correspondence from Argentina.

506 Historic ABNC Archival Letter Discussing Argentina Banknote Printing. Buenos Aires, 13 May 1897. 4 page letter and financial accounting sheet from Samuel B Hale & Co., the business representative for ABNC in Argentina, addressed to T.H.Freeland at ABNC. Interesting letter content that discusses a range of issues with Freeland. Hale thanks Freeland for the "Model Notes" and "Your desire to have Bolivian Bank notes returned...We have shown the notes to Senor Maunco and he expressed himself as being very much satisfied with them....he has sent his report to the board....in favor of ABNC". Hale also discusses the information on the South American Printer "Compania Sud Americana" (which ABNC may have had a financial interest in) and Argentina's contract with them and the amount of counterfeiting required a new issue. He mentions that Mr.Maunco suggested that the denominations include only 1, 5, 10, 50, 100 and 500 Notes. Hale also discusses bonds that are held by ABNC of for investment and their financial interest in "Compania Sud Americana", the banknote printing company. The letter is signed by Hale. Interesting, historic and unique content letter that helps to enlighten the student of Security Printers to the inner day to day workings and financial interests of ABNC, the largest security printer at that time. ..... Est. $350-700

507 Historic ABNC Archival Letter Discussing Argentina Banknote Production. Nov.27, 1896. 2 page file copy letter from "T.H.Freeland" at ABNC in New York written to C.H.Sanford, Esq. in regards to producing banknotes for Argentina. Argentina wanted a completely printed specimen on the final paper to be used and ABNC suggested that it would be impractical since the note sizes and designs were not approved and that they suggest that proofs or models be sent first with samples of the paper to be used instead. It was also suggested by Sanford to ABNC that they should consider using the British type of paper and printing which Freeland, from ABNC, explained was very easy to counterfeit and that the paper used on English notes would not last as long as the higher quality hard finished linen fiber paper ABNC used on their notes. Signed by Freeland as Secretary and Manager. Rare and historic content letter from ABNC archival correspondence file. ABNC. .....Est. $200-400

508 Historic ABNC Archival Letter Discussing Secret Argentina Banknote Printing. Buenos Aires, 23 Sept 1897. 3 page letter and financial accounting sheet from Samuel B Hale & Co., the business representative for ABNC in Argentina, addressed to T.H. Freeland at ABNC. Another interesting letter with content that discusses a range of issues with Freeland. The major highlight of this letter includes secret information about the Argentine Director of the Mint's visit to Europe to have plates made for a new banknote issue and buy paper so that Argentina can print their own money rather than use an outside printer such as ABNC. Hale feels that they will be unsatisfied with the printing result and realize that their estimate of cost was too low. Argentina is also unhappy with Compania Sud Americana de Billetes quality of work and that many impressions had to be destroyed which may also have effected their decision to print their own banknotes. He ends the letter with the state of their South American investments in bonds, stocks and cash. Another rare inside look at ABNC in South America. ABNC. .....Est. $300-600

509 Historic ABNC Archival Letter Discussing Uruguay Banknote Printing. Buenos Aires, 10 June 1897. 3 page letter and financial accounting sheet from Samuel B Hale & Co., the business representative for ABNC in Argentina, addressed to T.H.Freeland at ABNC. Another interesting letter with content that discusses a range of issues with Freeland. Hale discusses the status of Bolivian Stamp Paper and that he is writing to the president of the Banco De Bolivia to help deliver large stamp orders to the Bolivian Government in small batches that they would pay for in smaller amounts rather than have the stamps delivered all at once and be owe ABNC a considerable sum that may not be paid in a timely manner. Hale also discusses information on Banco Nacional Uruguay's banknote interests, Argentina's new emission discussions and that they have not made up their minds yet on the new banknote issue with the letter ending with an accounting and breakdown of ABNC's financial interests in Argentina and South America. Rare and interesting letter dealing with day to day business operations of ABNC.....Est. $300-600

602 Early ABNC Correspondence File 1883-1893. Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Series of 10 different letters from Mr. A.J.Lamoureux, Editor of "The Rio News" that was printed in Rio de Janeiro 3 times a month for the shipping industry, to ABNC dated from October, 1882 to November 1893. Historic and interesting correspondence file from ABNC Archives stapled to manila file folder relating to a number of interesting items. His first 3 letters, dated 1882 and 1883 are addressed to Albert G.Goodall, President of ABNC. The first of these discuss the Baldwin Locomotive Works, which evidently had a branch in Brazil and also advertised in his newspaper and a preprinted circular describing the Rio News, pasted to a sheet of paper is included; The second letter discussed ABNC's request to Mr. Lamoureux to obtain 2 specimen books filled with banknotes, one from ABNC and the other from Continental BNC, formerly held by one of its agents in Rio who disappeared to Uruguay (evidently due to financial problems); The third letter discusses his success in obtaining a "portfolio of loose specimens of bonds, cheques, notes, etc." and asks for information on what to do with them. An 1890 letter discusses the interest of "Companhia Lupton, Sao Paulo" in having ABNC to print shares for the company; Additional letters requests ABNC to print colanders for The Rio News and also for other companies; the poor state of the English Hospital in Rio and request for financial help; One of the highlights of the correspondence in a letter dated 15th November, 1893, is his stating "...accept my sincere apologies for this delay....I have been in so much confusion since this revolution broke out..."; another letter discusses further calendar printing requests and hospital news. The file ends with a list of letters from the correspondence. Mostly Fine to VF condition. Historic, rare and interesting Brazilian correspondence file from ABNC's Archive and if I failed to mention, unique. ABNC. ..... Est. $800-1600

Specimen overprints and POC's. Red text in middle changing par value of stocks. XF condition. ABNC. Texas Pacific Land Trust was created in 1888 due to the bankruptcy of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company. The railroad had sold bonds and pledged the land it earned under the Land Grant system to get money to build the railroad, and therefore the bondholders had a security interest in the land. The bankruptcy trustee gave the land to the bondholders, who converted the bonds to stock and placed the shares on the New York Stock Exchange. There was a reorganization of the New York Stock Exchange in 1888 and Texas Pacific Land Trust was placed as the number three company that year. Scarce railroad related stock. ..... CONDITIONS OF SALE

THE PLACING OF A BID SHALL CONSTITUTE ACCEPTANCE OF THESE CONDITIONS OF SALE

BIDDING

1. Unless announced otherwise by the auctioneer, all bids are per lot, as numbered in the printed Catalogue. Archives International Auctions, as agent for the consignor or vendor, shall regulate the bidding and shall determine the manner in which the bidding shall be conducted. Archives International Auctions reserves the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale (without liability to any potential purchaser or agent), to re-offer any withdrawn lot, to divide a lot or to group two or more lots belonging to the same consignor or vendor, and to refuse any bid believed not made in good faith. Estimates of sales prices contained in the printed Catalogue reflect the best judgment of Archives International Auctions and are not minimum or upset prices.

2. (a) Bids shall be made in the steps set forth in paragraph 12.

   (b) The highest bid acknowledged by the auctioneer shall prevail. Should a dispute arise between bidders (including a dispute be tween a floor bidder and the auctioneer acting on behalf of a mail bidder, consignor or vendor), the auctioneer alone shall determine who the successful bidder is and whether to reoffer the lot in dispute. Should a dispute arise after the sale, the auction eer's sale records shall be conclusive. On all lots sold, a commission of 18% on the hammer price is payable by the buyer to the auctioneer.

3. (a) The auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of clients (and consignors or vendors) but shall not be liable for errors and omissions in executing instructions to bid, however received, and whether such errors or omissions be those of the bidder or agent or those of the auctioneer.

   (b) Lots may be offered subject to a reserve price. The auctioneer may implement such reserve price by bidding on behalf of the consignor vendor.

   (c) It may also be assumed that all consignors have been advanced monies against the sale of their consigned material and Archives International Auctions therefore has a security interest in the consigned material over and above the normal auction commission.

   (d) Purchases made by a consignor or vendor or his agent on his own lots shall be considered as a sale subject to commissions and sales tax as applicable.

   (e) Agents are responsible for the payment of the purchase price for all purchases made on behalf of their clients, unless other arrangements with the auctioneer have been confirmed in writing prior to the auction.

PAYMENT FOR PURCHASES

4. Payment for lots, including those on which opinions are desired (Con dition of Sale 8), shall be as follows:

   (a) Floor Bidders. Payment of the purchase price, or such part there of as Archives International Auctions shall require, shall be made by the purchaser in cash or bank or certified check or in such other manner as Archives International Auctions may determine. The name and address of the purchaser of each lot shall be given to the auctioneer immediately following the sale of such lot.

   (b) Mail Bidders. A successful mail bidder will be notified of lots purchased. Before Archives International Auctions will send such lots, payment in full must be received by Archives International Auctions within three (3) business days of receipt of the aforesaid notification by the mail bidder. However, a purchaser known to Archives International Auctions at its option may have purchases delivered or forwarded for immediate payment (by a dollar draft on a U.S. bank in the case of overseas purchasers). Mailed delivery will be to the address on the bid sheet and proof by Archives International Auctions of receipt of a sending at the advised address shall constitute delivery. All charges for handling, delivery and insurance obtained by Archives International Auctions on behalf of the purchaser shall be added to the purchase price; a minimum charge of $10.00 will be made. Risk of loss in transit shall be on the purchaser.

5. Title shall not pass to the purchaser until full payment has been received by Archives International Auctions as agents for the consignor or vendor.

6. (a) Purchasers agree to pay for lots as specified in Condition of Sale 4 (or as the same may be modified by Condition of Sale 8), and no credit is extended; a late payment charge of 2% per month or fraction thereof shall be added if payment is not made in accordance with the aforesaid conditions.

   (b) In the event that a bidder shall fail to comply with these Conditions of Sale ("Non-Complying Bidder"), then, as to any lot with respect to which such failure to comply occurs, Archives International Auctions may, in its sole discretion, re-offer such lot during the same auction or at an auction at a later time, or by private treaty at such time as Archives International Auctions, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate and the Non-Complying Bidder shall be liable for the deficiency, if any, between the hammer price and the net proceeds of a sale to a subsequent purchaser, whether at auction or by private treaty, as well as for all costs and expenses of both sales, all other charges due thereunder, including commissions with respect to both sales, whether payable to Archives International Auctions or to a third party and all incidental damages. It shall be in Archives International Auctions' sole discretion to determine whether to re-offer the lot theretofore hammered-down to a Non-Complying Bidder at the same auction, or by private treaty in due course, or at a subsequent auction conducted by Archives International Auctions. In no event shall any surplus arising from the sale of a re-offered lot be payable to a Non-Complying Bidder.

   (c) A defaulting purchaser shall be deemed to have granted Archives International Auctions a security interest in property in Archives International Auctions possession owned by such purchaser. Archives International Auctions shall have all of the rights afforded a purchase money secured party under the New York or New Jersey Uniform Commercial Code with respect to such property and may apply against such obligations all monies held or received by it for the account of, or due from Archives International Auctions to such purchaser. Archives International Auctions is authorized to file a Financing Statement in order to perfect its rights as a secured party.

   (d) If Archives International Auctions takes any legal steps to secure payment of a delinquent account, the defaulting purchaser shall be liable for all legal and other expenses incurred by Archives International Auctions to secure such payment, including but not limited to a reasonable allowance for attorneys' fees. For purposes of this paragraph, the term legal steps shall be deemed to include any and all consultation by Archives International Auctions with its attorneys with respect to all matters arising out of a delinquent account.

   (e) Unless otherwise acceptable to Archives International Auctions, payment is to be made only in the form of cash, bank check or certified check, credit card (Visa or MasterCard only) or a bank wire transfer.

EXHIBITION AND INSPECTION OF LOTS; QUALITY AND AUTHENTICITY

7. (a) On Premises Inspection only. Ample opportunity is given for on premises inspection prior to the auction date, and, upon written request and at Archives International Auctions discretion.

   (b) Each lot is sold as genuine and correctly described, based on individual description as modified by any specific notations in this Catalogue.

   (c) Quality. Any lot which a purchaser considers to be incorrectly described may be returned to Archives International Auctions within two weeks of its receipt by such purchaser ("Returning Purchaser"), provided, however, that the same is received by Archives International Auctions within four weeks of the date of the auction; however, Archives International Auctions may, in its discretion, refuse acceptance of such returned lot. If an opinion of a generally recognized authority is desired, the period of time within which a lot must be received by Archives International Auctions will be extended in accordance with Condition of Sale 8. In the event that a dispute cannot be resolved by reference to a generally recognized authority, and Archives International Auctions thereupon undertakes to re-offer the lot with a description identical to thedescription disputed, the Returning Purchaser shall be liable for the deficiency, if any, between the proceeds of the sale to the Returning Purchaser and the proceeds of a sale to a subsequent purchaser, as well as for all costs and expenses of the re-sale, including commission, and all incidental damages. Any lot, the description of which is disputed, must be returned intact in the condition received by the purchaser. The following lots are not returnable except at the discretion of Archives International Auctions: (i) lots from purchasers who attended the exhibition of the lots; (ii) lots examined by postal viewers; (iii) lots on account of their appearance, if they are illustrated in this Catalogue; or (iv) lots described as having repairs, defects or faults for any reason.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

(d) Authenticity. Any lot which is declared otherwise than genuine by a generally recognized authority is returnable, provided such lot is received by Archives International Auctions within four weeks of the date of the auction. Proof that a generally recognized authority declines to express an opinion is normally grounds for the return of a lot.

(e) Expenses incurred a purchaser in the submission and the return of a lot under Conditions of Sale 7 are not subject to refund.

SALES TAX

8. Unless presentation of satisfactory proof that it is exempted by law, a purchaser shall pay to Archives International Auctions New Jersey or New York State and local sales taxes, or any compensating use taxes of any other State claiming jurisdiction. A purchaser shall indemnify Archives International Auctions and hold it harmless of and from any claims of any jurisdiction for sales taxes relating to the purchase of articles at the auction, whenever the same may arise.

APPLICABLE LAW, JURISDICTION, ETC.

9. All matters arising out of this auction shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey without giving effect to the choice of law principles thereof.

ARBITRATION

10. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this auction shall be settled by arbitration in the City of New York, State of New York in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association and judgment upon the award rendered by the Arbitrator or Arbitrators may be entered in any Court having jurisdiction.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE OF ACTIONS

11. The purchaser at this auction (a) consents and submits to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of New Jersey or New York and of the Courts of the United States for a judicial district within the territorial limits of the State of New Jersey for all matters arising out of this auction sale, including, without limitation, any action or proceeding instituted for the enforcement of any right, remedy, obligation and liability arising under or by reason thereof; and (b) consents and submits to the venue of such action or proceeding in the City of Hackensack, County of Bergen, State of New Jersey (or such judicial district of a Court of the United States as shall include the same, and (c) further consents that service of process in any action relating thereto may be effected by registered mail, return receipt requested address to the purchase at the address given to the auctioneer at the time of the sale.
